

Employment Opportunities

Camp Fortune Ski Instructor

Camp Fortune is a client-based business in the hospitality industry. We are a team that loves to serve people, taking pride in the service that our team delivers to our guests. If you are outgoing, friendly, and enjoy greeting guests in a friendly manner we are currently seeking a dynamic bilingual individual for seasonal employment.

Position Summary

The Instructor teaches ski or snowboard lessons to a varied clientele for a first season with the Camp Fortune team of instructors. You are very outgoing, detail oriented, with excellent communication skills in French and English. Demonstrate good values that reflect the company, respect for all co-workers and clients of all ages, and are proven reliable. You should also have proven ability to handle difficult situations.

Job Requirements

You must have reliable transportation to Camp Fortune (no public transportation available). Should be able to communicate effectively with people of all ages. Demonstrate good values that reflect the company, respect for all co-workers and guests, and must be reliable.

Job Responsibilities and Duties

- Teach ski or snowboard techniques to the resort's clients in order to improve their performance and develop their skills while allowing them to have an enjoyable experience.
- Completes progress reports for students (groups only)*.
- Welcomes and ensures the well-being and safety of his/her client or group members under his/her responsibility both on the slopes and in the lifts; maintains good order and discipline during lessons when required.
- Attends regular information meetings. New certified instructors must communicate with the Ski School Director via email.
- A minimum time commitment is mandatory from all instructors.
- And take part in the training and selection sessions in Dec. 3 4 and 10 11

Qualifications and Skills

- Skiing: Canadian Ski Instructors' Alliance Level 1 (minimum) certificate, or in the process of obtaining it.
- Snowboarding: Canadian Snowboard Instructors Alliance Level 1 (minimum) certificate, or in the process of obtaining it.
- Adhere to all Camp Fortune policies and procedures
- Follow all health and safety directives of the company

-
- Neat in appearance, responsible, dynamic, loyal, honest and reliable.
 - Excellent customer service, or general work experience. Experience is an asset.
 - Training provided. (See additional info)

Additional (for NEW Instructors)

- The Camp Fortune Academy offers a 4-day pre-course for skiers/snowboarders preparing to take their level 1 course. Cost for the pre-course is $150.00 (includes lift pass for training and on-course). However, it's not a prerequisite to taking the certification course, if you choose to go directly to the course, contact us once you have completed it.
- Suggestion: Register for the pre-course on the 26 or 27 of Nov. This can be done in the pro room at Camp Fortune.
- Attending training and / or passing your level 1 does not guarantee steady posting with one of the programs.

Schedule & Duration:

Starting in December to March.

Must be available weekdays, evenings, weekends and holidays.

Seasonal full-time or part-time.

Starting Wage:

$14.50 per hour. Wages dependant on certifications, programming

Join our team today and enjoy the many perks of working with Camp Fortune this season!

Camp Fortune is committed to being an equal opportunity employer, creating an inclusive work environment and encourages employees to be authentic. If you need any special arrangements with your application, be sure to let us know in your application. Please send your interest in employment and your CV to: info@campfortune.com.

We thank all applicants for their interest but only those selected for an interview will be contacted.